PROXY STATEMENT

GENERAL INFORMATION

GENERAL

This Proxy Statement (first mailed to stockholders on or about May 11, 2001) is furnished to the holders of Common Stock, par value $.01 per share (the 'Common Stock'), of G-III Apparel Group, Ltd. (the 'Company') in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of the Company of proxies for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the 'Annual Meeting'), or at any adjournment thereof, pursuant to the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Annual Meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 12, 2001, at 10:00 a.m., New York time, at the offices of Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., 666 Fifth Avenue, 31st Floor, New York, New York 10103.

It is proposed that at the Annual Meeting: (i) nine directors will be elected and (ii) the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent certified public accountants of the Company for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2002 will be ratified.

Management currently is not aware of any other matters that will come before the Annual Meeting. If any other matters properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons designated as proxies intend to vote in accordance with their best judgment on such matters.

Proxies for use at the Annual Meeting are being solicited by the Board of Directors of the Company. Proxies will be solicited chiefly by mail; however, certain officers, directors, employees and agents of the Company, none of whom will receive additional compensation therefor, may solicit proxies by telephone, telegram or other personal contact. The Company will bear the cost of the solicitation of the proxies, including postage, printing and handling, and will reimburse the reasonable expenses of brokerage firms and others for forwarding material to beneficial owners of shares of Common Stock.

REVOCABILITY AND VOTING OF PROXY

A form of proxy for use at the Annual Meeting and a return envelope for the proxy are enclosed. Unless otherwise indicated on the form of proxy, shares of Common Stock represented by any proxy in the enclosed form, assuming the proxy is properly executed and received by the Company prior to the Annual Meeting, will be voted with respect to the following items on the agenda: (i) the election of each of the nominees for director as shown on the form of proxy and (ii) the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent certified public accountants of the Company.

Stockholders may revoke the authority granted by their execution of a proxy at any time prior to the effective exercise of the powers conferred by that proxy, by filing with the Secretary of the Company a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by voting in person at the meeting. Shares of Common Stock represented by executed and unrevoked proxies will be voted in accordance with the instructions specified in such proxies. If no specifications are given, the proxies intend to vote the shares represented thereby 'for' the election of each of the nominees for director as shown on the form of proxy and 'for' the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent certified public accountants of the Company, and in accordance with their best judgment on any other matters which may properly come before the meeting.

RECORD DATE AND VOTING RIGHTS

On May 7, 2001, there were 6,665,164 shares of Common Stock outstanding (excluding those held by the Company). Each of these shares is entitled to one vote upon each of the matters to be presented at the Annual Meeting. Only stockholders of record at the close of business on May 7, 2001 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof. The holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, will constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum, but will not be counted with respect to the specific matter being voted upon. 'Broker non-votes' are shares held by brokers or nominees which are present in person or represented by proxy, but which are not voted on a particular matter because instructions have not been received from the beneficial owner.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a plurality of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of directors. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required for the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Directors who are not employees of the Company receive $5,000 per year, in addition to $500 for each meeting of the Board attended and $500 for each meeting of each Audit Committee of the Board attended, plus reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with attendance at Board of Directors' meetings.

Aron Goldfarb, a director of the Company, acts as a consultant to the Company and is paid at the rate of $1,000 per month for services rendered in such capacity. The Company also provides an automobile and medical insurance for Mr. Goldfarb and his wife.

G-III Apparel Group, Ltd. Stock Option Plan for Non-Employee Directors

Pursuant to the G-III Apparel Group, Ltd. 1999 Stock Option Plan for Non-Employee Directors (the '1999 Non-Employee Directors Plan'), the Company automatically grants options to purchase shares of Common Stock on an annual basis to members of its Board of Directors who are not also employees of, or consultants to, the Company (a 'Non-Employee Director'). Subject to adjustment to reflect stock splits and other capital changes, a maximum of 50,000 shares are issuable under the 1999 Non-Employee Directors Plan.

Under the 1999 Non-Employee Directors Plan, each Non-Employee Director is automatically granted an option to purchase 1,000 shares of Common Stock on the day after each annual meeting of the Company's stockholders (each, a 'Grant Date'). All options issued under the 1999 Non-Employee Directors Plan are exercisable at a per share exercise price equal to the closing sales price of a share of Common Stock on the Grant Date.

In general, each option granted under the 1999 Non-Employee Directors Plan becomes exercisable in equal increments of 200 shares on each of the first through fifth anniversaries of the date the option is granted, and subject to the foregoing, may be exercised during the ten year period from the date the option is granted. However, a Non-Employee Director who ceases to perform services for the Company will have three months (one year in the case of termination by reason of death or total disability) to exercise his or her outstanding options, but only to the extent otherwise exercisable under the vesting schedule.

Under the 1999 Non-Employee Directors Plan, the Board of Directors, acting in its discretion, may (i) make a one-time grant of an option to purchase up to 10,000 shares of Common Stock to an individual when he or she first becomes a Non-Employee Director and (ii) increase the number of shares covered by the automatic annual option grant to Non-Employee Directors to as many as 2,000 shares.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

General. The Compensation Committee consists of Thomas J. Brosig and Sigmund Weiss. The Company's compensation policies have evolved over the years since the Company's initial public stock offering in December 1989. At the time of the public offering and periodically since then, the compensation levels of the Company's executive officers were reviewed and compared to officers of other publicly held apparel companies. The Company adopted the 1989 Plan in 1989 and increased the number of shares subject to the 1989 Plan in January 1992 and June 1994. In 1997, the Company adopted the 1997 Plan and in 2000 the Company increased the number of shares subject to the 1997 Plan. The 1989 Plan and 1997 Plan are administered by the Option Committee, which is currently composed of Willem van Bokhorst and George J. Winchell.

One of the Company's strengths is a strong management team. The compensation program is designed to enable the Company to attract, retain and reward capable employees who contribute to the Company's success. Equity participation and a strong alignment to stockholders' interests are key elements of the Company's compensation philosophy. The Company's executive compensation policies are intended to (i) attract and retain the most highly qualified managerial and executive talent; (ii) afford appropriate incentives to produce superior performance; (iii) emphasize sustained performance by aligning rewards with stockholder interests; (iv) motivate executives and employees to achieve the Company's annual and long-term business goals; and (v) reward executives for superior individual contributions to the Company. To implement these policies, the Board of Directors designed an executive compensation program consisting, in general, of base salary, annual bonus plan and stock options.

Under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the 'Code') publicly held companies may be prohibited from deducting as an expense for federal income tax purposes total remuneration in excess of $1 million paid to certain executive officers in a single year. However, Section 162(m) of the Code provides an exception for 'performance-based' remuneration, including remuneration attributable to certain stock options. The Company expects to keep 'non-performance-based' remuneration within the $1 million limit to ensure that all executive compensation will be fully deductible. Nevertheless, although the Committee considers the net cost to the Company in making all compensation decisions (including, for this purpose, the potential limitation on deductibility of executive compensation), there is no assurance that compensation realized with respect to any particular award will qualify as 'performance-based' remuneration.

Base Salary. Base salaries reflect individual responsibilities, experience, leadership and contribution to the success of the Company. Annual salary adjustments are generally determined by evaluating the performance of the executive and any increased responsibilities assumed by the executive, the performance of the Company and the competitive marketplace. During the fiscal year ended January 31, 1999 ('fiscal 1999'), the fiscal year ended January 31, 2000 ('fiscal 2000'), and the fiscal year ended January 31, 2001 ('fiscal 2001'), the Company granted certain salary increases based on performance and the competitive marketplace.

Annual Bonuses. The Company has a discretionary bonus program for corporate management personnel, which includes Ms. Nostra-Katz, Mr. Miller, and Mr. Sutton Jones. Under the discretionary program, if the Company's overall profit target is met, corporate management personnel are entitled to receive bonuses, determined by Morris Goldfarb, the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, based on an evaluation of the executive's individual performance and contribution to the Company's results of operations. The Company's range of profit targets for fiscal 2000 and fiscal 2001 were met and the bonuses awarded Ms. Nostra-Katz, Mr. Miller, and Mr. Sutton Jones are set forth in the Summary Compensation Table. Management personnel were not awarded bonuses for fiscal 1999 as profit targets were not met. The Company has an incentive compensation program for division Vice-Presidents, including Ms. Gaertner. The incentive compensation program is based on targeted division and overall company performance. The Company's and division's overall targets were met in fiscal 2000 and fiscal 2001 and the bonus paid to Ms. Gaertner for those years is set forth in the Summary Compensation table.

Mr. Goldfarb has a performance-based incentive bonus provision in his employment agreement. This incentive provision is intended to recognize Mr. Goldfarb's unique role in overall management and corporate strategy and provide incentive compensation based on overall performance by the Company. Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Goldfarb was paid a bonus of $494,355 with respect to fiscal 2000 and a bonus of $1,058,419 with respect to fiscal 2001. Mr. Goldfarb was not paid a bonus with respect to fiscal 1999.

Stock Options. The Compensation Committee endorses the position that equity ownership by management is beneficial in aligning management's and stockholders' interests in the enhancement of stockholder value. Stock option awards provide a long-term view and incentives tied to growth in stockholder values. The Committee strongly believes that the compensation program should provide employees with an opportunity to increase their ownership and potentially gain financially from Company stock price increases. By this approach, the best interests of stockholders, executives and employees will be closely aligned.

The Committee believes that the use of stock options as the basis for long-term incentive compensation meets the Company's compensation strategy and business needs of the Company by achieving increased value for stockholders and retaining key employees. The Committee intends to work closely with the Option Committee to achieve these goals.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

In accordance with its written charter adopted by the Board of Directors attached as an appendix to this proxy statement, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors (the 'Committee') is responsible for, among other things, reviewing and discussing the audited financial statements with management, and discussing with the Company's auditors information relating to the auditors' judgments about the quality of the Company's accounting principles. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process. The Company's independent auditors are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of our audited financial statements to generally accepted accounting principles.

Review of Audited Financial Statements. The Audit Committee has reviewed the Company's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2001 as audited by Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's independent auditors, and has discussed these financial statements with management. INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

On July 20, 2000, the Company dismissed Grant Thornton LLP as its principal accountants and engaged Ernst & Young LLP. The decision to change accountants was approved by the Company's Audit Committee.

Neither of the reports of Grant Thornton LLP on the financial statements for the Company's fiscal years ended January 31, 1999 and January 31, 2000 contained an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor was either qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. During the fiscal years ended January 31, 1999 and January 31, 2000, the three months ended April 30, 2000, and through July 20, 2000, there were no disagreements with Grant Thornton LLP on to the satisfaction of Grant Thornton LLP, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its report.

During the fiscal years ended January 31, 1999 and January 31, 2000, the three months ended April 30, 2000, and through July 20, 2000, the Company had not consulted Ernst & Young LLP regarding any matter requiring disclosure under Item 304(a)(2) of Regulation S-K.

The Company provided Grant Thornton LLP with a copy of this disclosure and requested that Grant Thornton LLP furnish it with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether it agrees with the above statements. In a letter to the SEC dated July 27, 2000, Grant Thornton LLP stated that it agreed with the statements in the prior three paragraphs as such statements pertained to Grant Thornton LLP.

AUDIT FEES

Ernst & Young LLP and the member firms of Ernst & Young (collectively 'Ernst & Young') billed the Company an aggregate of $172,000 in fees for professional services rendered in connection with the audit of the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2001 and the reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended July 31, 2000 and October 31, 2000.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION SYSTEMS DESIGN AND IMPLEMENTATION FEES

Ernst & Young did not provide any professional services to the Company for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2001 in connection with the design or implementation of any financial information systems.

ALL OTHER FEES

Ernst & Young billed the Company an aggregate of $43,000 in fees for other services rendered to the Company for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2001. The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young's independence.

PROPOSAL NO. 2-RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The stockholders will be asked to ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent certified public accountants of the Company for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2002. Ernst & Young LLP audited the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2001. A representative of Ernst & Young LLP is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, and will have an opportunity to make a statement if such person desires to do so, and is expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS DEEMS PROPOSAL NO. 2 TO BE IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE COMPANY AND ITS STOCKHOLDERS AND RECOMMENDS A VOTE 'FOR' APPROVAL THEREOF.

COMPARATIVE PERFORMANCE BY THE COMPANY

The Securities and Exchange Commission requires the Company to present a chart comparing the cumulative total stockholder return on its Common Stock with the cumulative total stockholder return of (i) a broad equity market index and (ii) a published industry index or peer group. COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 16(a) OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

To the Company's knowledge, except for Keith Sutton Jones who was three days late in filing a Form 4, which reported three transactions, the Company's directors, executive officers and beneficial owners of more than ten percent of the Company's Common Stock are in compliance with the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

In September 1986, the New York City Industrial Development Agency ('IDA') issued $1,442,000 of floating rate Industrial Development Revenue Bonds to a commercial bank for the purpose of acquiring and renovating real property located at 345 West 37th Street in New York City (the '345 Property'). Simultaneously, the IDA leased the 345 Property for a term of 15 years to 345 West 37th Corp. ('345 West'), a company owned and managed by Morris Goldfarb and Aron Goldfarb, for sublease to a subsidiary of the Company as its headquarters. Monthly rental payments are due under the sublease in an amount equal to the aggregate of all amounts due under the bonds (including principal, redemption premium, if any, and interest), plus real estate taxes and building operating expenses. Two of the Company's subsidiaries and Morris Goldfarb and Aron Goldfarb (collectively, the

'Guarantors'), have jointly and severally guaranteed the payments and obligations under the lease and the payment of principal and interest on the bonds.

In April 1988, 345 West received a loan in the principal amount of $1,153,000 from the New York Job Development Authority (the 'Authority'), to assist 345 West in its renovation of the 345 West Property. The loan is for a period of 15 years and is repayable in monthly installments of $11,217, which includes interest at 8.25%. The loan is financed by long-term bonds issued by the Authority. G-III and the two principal stockholders of the Company have signed corporate and personal guarantees for this loan. The outstanding principal of this debt was approximately $284,000 at January 31, 2001.

Morris Goldfarb and Lyle Berman and/or related family partnerships or trusts for the benefit of their children are beneficial owners of an aggregate of more than 10% of the fully diluted common equity of Wilsons, a retail leather apparel chain. Mr. Goldfarb and Mr. Berman are also directors of Wilsons. During the year ended January 31, 2001, sales by the Company to Wilsons accounted for approximately $13.1 million of the Company's net sales.
